

IF LOVE IS OUT OF THE QUESTION

NUMA

(Paul Bliss / Phil Palmer)

You bought me flowers and you sold me a line
You gave me compliments and too much wine
I've played that game, I know all the moves
You show emotion but you hide what you feel
You play the innocent but I've watched you steal
I rest my case, you stand accused

But I must confess I was quite impressed
You seduced me with your easy charm
And I must admit I could fall for it

But if love is out the question
There's no point to this affection
I gotta have more than ecstasy, make me believe
I'm all you'll ever need, make me believe

'Cause if love is out the question
Put a little heart in your intention
I gotta have more than ecstasy, make me believe
I'm all you'll ever need, yeah

You talk in circles when I need a straight line
You've got your principles and I've got mine
We all need commitment that's all I ask
Is that a crime?

And I must confess I was quite impressed
I was losing to your winning ways
But I must resist there's no point to this

But if love is out the question
There's no point to this affection
I gotta have more than ecstasy, make me believe
I'm all you'll ever need, hey yeah

'Cause if love is out the question I just gotta stop
Little point to this affection I just wanna stop
It makes no sense to carry on like this
If there's nothing between us you don't know what you'll miss

No love, there's no love
Baby, it's true
There's no love

But if love is out the question
There's no point to this affection
But if love is out the question
Put a little heart in your intention

But if love is out the question
There's no point to this affection
But if love is out the question
Put a little heart in your intention

But if love is out the question
There's no point to this affection
